While walking along the road, she meets a mysterious traveler named Jakob, who advises her to seek financial assistance from Stefaans Marais, the owner of Engelsplaas farm. Tina asks for his help and eventually meets with Stefaans, who agrees to provide her with some money. Tina recently finished her seventh-grade year at Rising Star school, which is an English-medium institution. However, she wants to attend the local Afrikaans school in town after completing her ninth grade year. This would require her to stay at Rising Star until then and eventually transfer to the town's school.
